Are you looking for a place to serve in HBC....there is a place for you

Missions Outreach- We already have our PORT week for next year, January 15– 22, 2020. We do not have sign up sheets yet BUT we will have near the end of the year. This outreach is a very important outreach as we help those who do not have a place to live. We will only be hosting PORT one week next year so please plan now. Mark the dates on your calendar because we need you! For more information see Pam Cooke on this ministry and others in Missions/Outreach

Building and Facilities- We can use help getting the grass cut weekly. We are working on a schedule and need a couple of other people to take a turn a month. If you can help make our church look its best, please contact the church office. We would like to have you on our schedule to help with this very important task. For more information see Denise Vassar.

Food Pantry- We could use a couple of people to be fill ins when we things come up and the other volunteers can not serve. We are able to ministry to so many people through this important ministry. See Sue Monfalcone and see where you can help.

Kids Sunday School- We have openings available to help with Sunday School. We could use at least one more person to share in the rotation. Please see Tracy Venable if you can help.

Vacation Bible School- Coming August 12th– 16th. Nightly 6:00pm – 8:30pm. Many areas need to be filled. We need adult leaders for each age class, help with recreation, registration and much more. See Dreama for how you can fill in the many blanks we have.

Wednesday Night Summer Meals- In the summer time, Denise takes off from Wednesday Night Dinners, so we have light fair menus through the summer. If you would like to fix a meal for a Wednesday Night Supper, contact Dreama and we can put you on the schedule.

There are more places to serve, this is just to name a few. Contact the church office with what your passion to serve is and you will be put in touch with team that you can use that desire for the Lord!

“It Is Well With My Soul!”

After the great Chicago fire of 1871, Horatio Spafford (1828-1888), a Chicago lawyer, arranged an ocean voyage to Europe for this family, where he would join them later. The ship on which the happy family sailed, the Ville du Havre, never got farther than halfway across the Atlantic.

In the dead of the night, it was rammed by a sailing vessel and cut in two. In the confusion and disaster that followed, Mrs. Spafford saw her four daughters swept away to their deaths. A falling mast knocked her unconscious, and a wave freakishly deposited her body on a piece of wreckage where, later, she regained consciousness. When she and a few other survivors reached Wales, she cabled two words to her husband: “Saved Alone.”

Taking the earliest next ship, he hastened to be at his wife’s side, all the ache of his heart going out to her and to his Father God. When his boat reached the approximate spot where the Ville du Havre had met with disaster, God gave him the inspiration and courage to write:

*When peace like a river attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll,
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say:
It is well, it is well with my soul.*

*Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed his own blood for my soul.*

*My sin, oh the bliss of this glorious thought,
My sin, not in part, but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, oh my Soul!*

*And Lord haste the day when the faith shall be sight,
The clouds be rolled back as a scroll,
The trump shall resound, and the Lord shall descend,
Even so, it is well with my soul.*

When the storms of life would overwhelm us, if we look to him, God has a song in the night for each of us; a song of strength, of peace, of hope. Let us listen and catch the strains that come from the Composer of songs for the night season of our soul.

On the grace journey together with you, Lynwood

What Are You Afraid of?

Typically when people are afraid of something, it breeds inactivity. Not certain what to do, they end up doing nothing at all. The Bible speaks quite a bit about fear – more than 700 times to be exact. 2 Timothy 1:7 says, “For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.”

If God has not given us a spirit of fear, then why are so many people who follow him are gripped by fear? I believe fear is one of his enemy’s primary tools used against believers to create doubt and faithlessness. Even Jesus said in Matthew 10:28, “And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.”

Fear can cause us to miss out on being a part of God’s great plans. We see this best in the story of Gideon. Gideon was afraid from the first moment God called him to save the people of Israel by defeating the Midianites. Gideon continually tested God, and in turn, God continually confronted Gideon’s fear by showing His power.

In Judges 7, as Gideon is preparing to battle the Midianites, God makes it clear He wants the Israelites to credit Him for the victory. So, God decides to wean Gideon’s army. The first cut? Any man who is afraid (Judges 7:3). With that, 22,000 men packed their bags and went home out of fear.

Leaving Gideon 10,000 soldiers, God says it must be smaller. God gave Gideon another criterion that left him with only 300 men. Sometimes God asks you to do things that are not practical or pragmatic.

In Gideon’s case, 300 men faithfully followed God’s instructions, which included no weapons but rather going into battle with only a trumpet and pitchers. Because of their faithfulness to do as God said, they won and defeated the Midianites. On the other hand, 22,000 men went home and later discovered they missed out on one of the greatest miraculous military battles in history. All because they ran from destiny and ran toward fear.

We all have fear. The enemy wants to paralyze us with it, but God wants us to walk by faith and instill courage in us to follow Him. The Bible says in Hebrews 11:6, “But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.”

Today, God calls you to walk by faith, not by fear. Of course, you will face seasons of fear, but in those times you must pray for God to give you the courage to stand strong and stand in what He has told you. Never doubt in the light what God has told you in the dark. The battle is not yours anyway; Always, remember... The battle belongs to the Lord!

What Is Pleasing To Him

I find it interesting that quite often, people attempt to enhance their relationship with God by trying not to do things they believe "break God's rules" for how to live. They see God as a tyrant, pointing His finger at them, and commanding in a deep, stern voice, "Thou Shalt Not!!" They spend their life trying to avoid lightning bolts of judgment from above!

The reality is, that kind of living is completely the opposite of how we should act, and how God desires us to live our lives. Rather than attempting to avoid doing things that displease God, we need to discipline ourselves to instead seek to find the best ways to please God! And, the more we succeed in doing what pleases Him, the less inclined we will be to do what displeases Him.

What a wonderful prayer we find in Hebrews 13:20-21, asking God to "equip you with everything good for doing his will," and to "work in us what is pleasing to Him!" I am so glad that the Lord does give us everything we "need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:19) With that in mind, it only makes sense that we discover and put into practice the very things that please God!

Tests are Temporary

by Max Lucado

All tests are temporary, limited in duration. 1 Peter 1:6 says, "In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have to suffer grief in all kinds of trials." Some tests end on earth, but all tests will end in heaven, right?

In the meantime, let God train you. He watches the way you handle the little jobs. Jesus promised in Matthew 25:21, "If you are faithful over a few matters, I will set you over many."

Do you aspire to great things? Excel in the small things. Don't complain. Let others grumble. Not you. When you're given a task, take it. When you see a hurt, address it. Compassion matters to God.

This is the time for service, not self-centeredness. Cancel the pity party. Love the people God brings to you. He will work in you what is pleasing to Himself.

And you will get through this testing time!

Think about this...

"Knowing your forever can shape your today!"

The questions we have about life after death—Is there a heaven? Will I again see and recognize loved ones who passed before me? Am I good enough? What if I'm not?—can leave us wondering.

But that doesn't mean we have to live in fear of what is to come. Discover why our ideas of life after death could change everything in "One Minute After You Die," an exciting three-part message series beginning Sunday, May 26th!
