9 Ways We Can Take Comfort in God During Coronavirus Fears

At HBC when our lives are challenged, we turn to the Word of God for our strength and to increase our faith. Knowing this God is our comfort. Psalm 91 describes Him as our shelter, shadow, refuge, fortress, refuge, shield, buckler, dwelling, rescuer, and protection.

Shelter (v. 1): God is our hiding place, covering us with His good purposes.

Shadow (v. 1): God is over and beyond us—seeing more than we see and knowing more than we know. We can rest in His shadow.

Refuge (v. 2): He is a safe place for us of security; we climb into Him.

Fortress (v. 2): He is our defense whose promises cannot be inhibited.

Shield (v. 4): Resting in our God deflects the enemies of fear and doubt in times of trial.

Buckler (or, shield that completely engulfs) (v. 4): He is a defense on every side. He knows every part of us and our lives—no aspect is beyond His reach.

Dwelling (v. 9): God's protection is not fleeting; His protection serves for our continual habitation.

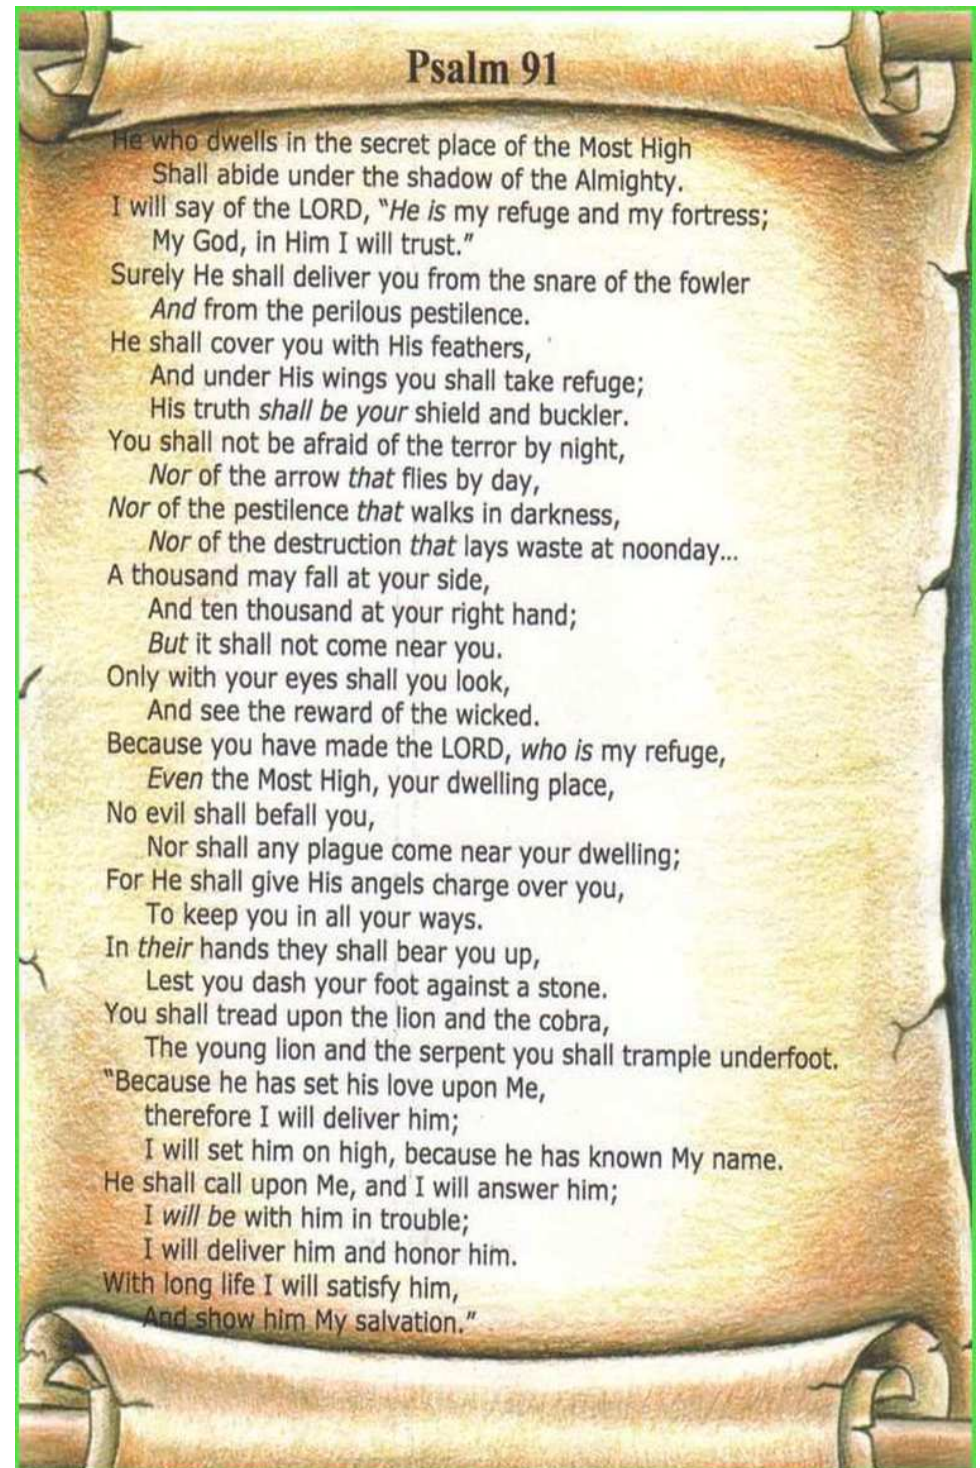

Rescuer (v. 14): He leads us off with Him, drawing us to Himself and rescuing us from being overcome by the world.

Protection (v. 14): In His protection, He carries us to an elevated place—by trusting in Him, our minds and hearts become inaccessible to the churning fears below.

As believers, we have committed to Christ that our lives and times are in His hands; our dream is that our days might bring Him glory. The reality of God's comfort and power to deliver us to eternal life is what gives us the spiritual deliverance from being dominated by pandemic in these days.

The promises of God – of life to come and of His divine purposes in this life – shade, shelter, and satisfy us. When fears of the coronavirus and its impacts surround us, how much fiercer is the security of an infinite God!

On the grace journey together with you, Lynwood

Casting Out Fear

God placed Adam and Eve in a perfect world. In a garden overflowing with abundance, He met every need! But Satan deceived Adam and Eve into believing that God was withholding blessings. And when they believed his lies, fear entered the world (Genesis 3:10).

After their disobedience, Adam and Eve became conscious of their sin. They no longer could enjoy God's abundance or even His presence. They no longer looked at Him as their Friend, but as someone to be feared.

This is the impact of fear on our lives: It paralyzes us. It shapes our attitudes and expectations, and blocks the flow of God's blessings. Like Adam and Eve, we can become afraid of facing God and afraid to believe His Word.

This fear is expressed in many ways. We can be afraid of failure, afraid of what others might say about us, or afraid about our jobs or world conditions. But everything changes when our relationship with the Father is restored; when our sins are forgiven and we live in fellowship with Him; when we obey and trust Him; when we seek His face and are led by His Spirit; when we believe that His Word really is true and that He delights to bless us; when we realize that He loves with a perfect love; when we remember all that He has prepared for us; when we're confident that He will meet our every need and give us an abundant life.

Today, remember that there is "no fear in love" and that God loves you perfectly. Enter into that love relationship with your Father. Let His love cast out every fear!

The Last Laugh!

Tammy rushed in to see her doctor, looking very much worried and all strung out.

She rattles off, "Doctor, take a look at me. When I woke up this morning, I looked at myself in the mirror and saw my hair all wiry and frazzled up, my skin was all wrinkled and pasty, my eyes were bloodshot and bugging out, and I had this corpse-like look on my face! What's wrong with me, Doctor?"

The doctor looks her over for a couple of moments, then calmly says, "Well, I can tell you that there ain't nothing wrong with your eyesight!"
